Straying slightly from the "high tea" format of recent years, Barb's Ladies Day is a chance to honour the memory of the late, great Barb Simpson and her huge contribution to our local clubs - and also thank and unite the ladies of our club today. Perfect weather permitting, the afternoon will entail some nibbles, drinks and socialising by the boundary line - all while watching the football of course. There's no cost to attend, and no need to bring a contribution of food. We'll kick off the festivities around 2pm for the start of the league game.
